

Lewis Book Loan Fund Guidelines

The Lewis Book loan fund at the University of Miami is an emergency fund made available to African, Asian, Hispanic and Native-American freshmen students to assist them with the purchase of textbooks only. This loan has to be repaid within sixty (60) days of the date in which the loan is issued. In order to qualify for a book loan, a student must meet the following criteria.

1. Cumulative G.P.A. of 2.0 or better.
2. Must be a freshman or first semester transfer student.
3. Read & Complete this form. Sign agreement.
4. Objective evidence of financial need as indicated by a copy of the students FAFSA.
5. Please attach copy of Financial Aid award and class schedule.
6. Ability to repay the loan within sixty (60) days.
7. Good academic standing (not on any university probation).
8. Submit class schedule (only books listed on official class schedule can be purchased)

Students will be notified via email if they are approved for a Book Loan. After receiving your approval email from MSA, please stop by the University Book Store with a copy of your Cane ID to pick up your books. You should also receive a copy of your receipt indicating the amount you will need to repay within 60 days.

If you have any questions regarding the book loan fund, please contact the Department of Multicultural Student Affairs at (305) 284-2855, Building 21-P.
